

Photo: Stellan Hemer, Privat, Regeringskansliet

Programme

European Carers Day

Webinar, 6 October, 10.00-11.30 am

The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre (Nationellt kompetenscentrum anhöriga) invites you to a webinar to celebrate the National Carers Day and the first European Carers Day.

Sweden is good at supporting carers, but a lot remains to be done. What can we do better?

Target group:

Politicians, managers, staff, carers and other interested.

The webinar will be held in Swedish.

Registration

Organizer:

EUROPEAN CARERS
DAY - 06 OCT.

Programme Tuesday, 6 October

Moderator: Mark Levensgood

Introduction

Lena Hallengren, Minister for Health and Social Affairs.

Story about being a carer

Ulla Lantz, Carer.

Carer support in Europe

Elizabeth Hanson, Scientific Leader of Nka (The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre) and professor at Linnaeus University.

Carers and caring in Sweden

Lennart Magnusson, Director of Nka (The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre) and Associate Professor at Linnaeus University.

Description of four different achievements that Sweden can be proud of Young Carers, The Health and Medical Service Act – Pauline Johansson, Researcher at Nka (The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre) and Senior Lecturer at Linnaeus University.

LSS – The Act concerning Support and Service for Persons with Certain Functional Impairments – Eva Borgström, FUB (The Swedish National Association for People with Intellectual Disability).

Elderly care – national strategy for dementia care – Stefan Andersson, Researcher at Nka (The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre) and clinical lecturer at Linnaeus University.

To work as a Coordinator of Carer Support – Monica Forsberg, County Coordinator for Carer Support Services in Norrbotten and Manager at Care and Nursing homes in Luleå.

What's left to do and what can we do better?

Discussion with:

Ann-Marie Högberg, Chairman, Carers Sweden.

Mikael Nylander, Coordinator of Carer Support in Danderyd and Regional Coordinator for Carer Support Services in Northern Stockholm.

Anders Henriksson (S), Second Vice President at the Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions.

Acko Ankarberg Johansson (KD), Chairman, Committee on Health and Welfare.

Mats Ewertzon, Researcher at Nka (The Swedish Family Care Competence Centre) and Affiliated Researcher at Ersta Sköndal Bräcke University.